

Cottage Accommodation Terms & Conditions

Covid-19

As we are managing a public health issue, we expect the full support of all our stakeholders: our guests, our team and our business partners. It is important that guests do not travel to the hotel if they feel unwell and have tested positive. If any member of the party displays symptoms during the stay, then the party must return home immediately. There will be no allowance on the terms unless the accommodation is fully relet. We strongly recommend holiday insurance.

Covid-19 information restrictions are subject to change without notice according to government guidelines and operational necessities. We will make ongoing changes essential for your safety and for the long term interests of the business. Please familiarise yourself with the latest announcements on the government website.

If the government dictates another closure, we will revert to the more relaxed cancellation terms we offered since March 2020 with a full refund, or a transfer of the deposit to another reservation. If the new booking is at a lower rate, then this will apply; however, if the new reservation is at a higher price, the difference will have to be paid.

It is your responsibility to check the latest government rules at the time of booking to see how they will impact your break. Bookings made that do not comply with regulations are non-refundable, so please check the prevailing guidelines before making a reservation.

1. A deposit of one third of the total cost is required to confirm a reservation and, by paying this, you are entering into a contract and accepting our booking Terms and Conditions. The person making the booking must be over 21 years of age and have the authority and responsibility to accept all the conditions on behalf of all party members.
2. Payment of the balance of the total cost of the holiday is due two calendar months before the date of the commencement of the holiday, or in full at the time of making the reservation if within two months of the holiday. The balance will be taken from the credit or debit card supplied, no reminder will be sent. Failure to comply will result in the cancellation of the holiday and forfeiture of the deposit and payment of full cancellation charges if the cottage is not re-let.
3. The credit or debit card used to pay for the cottage must be presented on arrival for a £50 per day preauthorisation of such incidentals as drinks, meals etc; any outstanding charges will be debited on departure. Additionally, an inventory deposit of £250 is required and this will be held against damage, losses and excessive final cleaning. Your liability is not limited to £250.
4. The cottage will be ready after 4pm; guests who arrive earlier will have access to the hotel's grounds and facilities. Cottages can be booked the night before at an extra charge to guarantee an early check in. On Headland Hotel Company Limited (The) | VAT No. 133 3199 83 | Company Reg. No. 01145071 departure day, the cottage must be vacated by 10am. However, by written agreement and subject to availability, a late check out may be arranged at an extra charge.

5. We are more than happy to help with your shopping and can arrange for a box of fresh produce from the award-winning local farm shop - Trevilley - to be delivered directly to your door. Please call Trevilley on 01637 872 310 or visit their website <https://www.trevilleyfarm.com/> for further details.
6. There will be a daily light clean of all the bedrooms and bathrooms, if left in a reasonably tidy state. There is a coin operated laundry facility in the hotel, plus a full laundry service as well.
7. Cottages should be left in a tidy condition at the end of your stay, ready to be cleaned with the dishwasher filled and set running. Cottages left in a poor state will incur an extra cleaning charge, from £75 per room.
8. Cancellations must be received in writing; if within four months of arrival date, this will result in liability for the total cost of the booking if the cottage is not fully re-let. If the cottage is fully re-let, the deposit/payment can be transferred to another booking or returned. A cancellation fee from £35 per cottage will be deducted for all cancellations. A change of date, or shortening of a booking, will be deemed a cancellation. Holiday insurance is strongly recommended. Small changes to minor details of confirmed reservations will incur an administration cost of not less than £10 per booking.

For guests booking a meal in any of our restaurants, a 'no show' charge of £10 per person will be made if you fail to cancel the reservation.

9. Several cottages have space for an extra pull out bed (apartments don't) and the cost for an extra guest is £50 per night. Extra guests must be agreed in writing prior to arrival and the hotel reserves the right to charge double the normal fee for any unauthorised overnight guests. Unless agreed in writing, the number of persons in a three-bedroom cottage shall not exceed six; in a two-bedroom cottage shall not exceed four; and in a one-bedroom apartment shall not exceed two.

Arriving with an unexpected extra guest or guests will place you in breach of contract and we reserve the right to cancel your booking and there would be no refund in these circumstances. Alternatively, there will be a doubling of the charges, payable immediately, or if a larger cottage is available you will be moved to that and the increased applicable price for that cottage will be due immediately, along with any extra cleaning charges resulting from the move

10. Reasonable access to the properties by representatives of the hotel must be allowed at all times.

11. Behaviour of guests and their visitors should not be excessive or rowdy, and must not cause annoyance, distress or embarrassment to staff or fellow guests. Threatening, offensive or illegal behaviour will not be tolerated. We reserve the right to recover from the person making the booking, any discretionary compensation payment that we have to pay other guests. This includes damage to the cottages, the hotel building, fixtures, fittings and flood damage.
12. Failure to comply with any of the booking conditions anywhere on site may result in the booking being cancelled or the party being asked to leave immediately if, at our sole discretion, we feel the conditions have been infringed. The account will be due in full and no refunds will be given in these circumstances.
13. Personal belongings are the responsibility of each member of the party, but items of value can be left in the hotel safe at Reception. We accept no liability whatsoever for any accident, loss or damage to property, unless such loss is demonstrably due to our negligence. We cannot be held responsible for failure of public services (e.g. water, gas, electricity etc), or any disturbance that is beyond our control. In all cases, except personal injury or death, our liability to you for the total of all claims arising out of your holiday with us is limited to the cost of the booking.
14. Improvements, maintenance and changes to the hotel's facilities and grounds take place throughout the year. We will always do our best to ensure that guests are not inconvenienced. No compensation will be paid if a facility is not available but we will do our best to provide a suitable alternative. During quieter periods, or when an event is taking place, only one restaurant may be available.
15. Smoking is not allowed in any part of the hotel and cottages. If this ban is ignored, a deep cleaning charge from £75 per room will be made, If the next occupant refuses to accept the cottage, you will be liable for the cost of the alternative accommodation as well.
16. Our cottages are dog-friendly, and house trained dogs with responsible owners, are charged at £28 per dog per night with effect from 1st December 2021, and are limited to two per cottage. Regrettably, guests do from time to time try to sneak dogs into the cottages to avoid paying this charge. In such instances, double the normal charges will apply and will be due immediately, and this will apply to also to any extra dogs that appear over and above the one or two already expected.
17. The hotel and cottages are situated right beside the sea and both children and dogs must be supervised at all times. The decks and gardens are not fenced.
18. We will be happy to assist you with your luggage from the nearby car park. Vehicles are parked at the owners' risk.

19. Please bring your own towels for the beach unless you are flying to Cornwall, in which case we will provide them.
20. The Spa pool within the hotel is a tranquil haven for adults only; children have the wonderful new Aqua Club to enjoy
21. The three Aqua Cottages (Fistral 2, 3 and 4) have private hot tubs and will be available for use on the day of arrival (4pm) but are not available for use on the morning of departure (10am). Additionally, they will automatically time out at 9pm in the evening to ensure that neighbouring cottage residents are not disturbed.
22. For Hotel & Cottage bookings linked to wedding packages please refer to the Headland Wedding Terms & Conditions.
23. Please note that staying in a cottage over Christmas and New Year does not automatically entitle you to a table for lunch or dinner on any given day. We strongly suggest that all lunch and dinner reservations over the Christmas period should be pre-booked to avoid disappointment. The hotel is not accessible after 7pm on New Year's Eve unless you have booked a table for the black tie party.
24. Special offers cannot be used in conjunction with one another and are always subject to availability and may be withdrawn without notice at any time. If the conditions are not fully met, then the standard tariff will apply.
25. Prices are correct at the time of publication but may change without notice, with the exception of confirmed bookings. These will not alter other than to reflect any changes in tax. Online published Terms and Conditions supersede any printed collateral. E&OE.
26. We reserve the right to refuse any booking.
